(q) Widowhood
(r) Childlessness arising under any other life assurance business which is not subject to the provisions of the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912.

} In the case of women.

Provided always that the Act shall not apply to any society which is subject to and complies with the provisions of the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912.

3. In compliance with the provisions of section 5 of the Act every society

(1) If already existing, shall provide, within six months from the date of these rules, for such of the matters mentioned in the attached schedule as are not already provided for in their rules; always subject to the condition that the terms of the then existing contracts shall not be altered to the detriment of its policy-holders.

If in any case it is made to appear to the Registrar that the circumstances are such that a longer period than six months should be allowed he may extend that period by such time as he may think fit.

(2) If not existing, shall provide in their rules before registration under the Act, for the matters mentioned in the said schedule.

The Registrar may exempt any society from providing for any of the matters in the schedule on the ground of non-compliance in such society.

A copy in English of the rules of the society shall, within fifteen days from the date of the adoption of the rules, be sent to the Registrar. The copy of the rules or amended rules of a society required to be forwarded in compliance with this rule and sections 8 and 9 of the Act shall not be accepted for registration unless it is certified to be a correct copy and is signed by the Chairman or Managing Director as well as by the Manager or one of the other responsible officers of the society.

Section 6. Application for registry.

4. All applications for the registration of societies shall be in form I.

5. No society, other than a society registered under the Indian Companies Act before the date of these rules, may register hereafter with a name in which occur (a) the words "life insurance" or "life assurance," or

Meaning of society.

(b) Words expressing or implying the notion, approval or patronage of the Crown or of the Government except in cases where the Government have signified in writing their consent to the use of such words.

Nor shall a society have a name identical with that by which a society in existence is already registered, or so nearly resembling that name as to be likely to lead to confusion.

6. Upon the registration of a society the Registrar shall grant an acknowledgment to the society in form II and on the registration or delivery of any document required to be registered or delivered he shall grant an acknowledgment in form III.

Sections 8 and 9.

Acknowledgments.

Section 11. Register of members.

7. The register of members prescribed by section 10 of the Act shall be maintained in form IV.

8. Every society shall maintain a register containing the names of all policyholders under each class of insurance in form V as near the details as circumstances admit.

Register of policyholders.

9. Every society shall keep at its registered office a register containing the names, addresses and occupations of its directors, managers, secretaries and all other officers or agents of the society and shall send to the Registrar a copy thereof and shall within 30 days of the occurrence notify to the Registrar any change among such directors, managers, secretaries or other officers or agents.

10. The name of the society to be displayed outside its office under section 13 of the Act shall be in English and also if the office of the society be situate outside the Presidency town in the vernacular of the district.

Section 13. Publication of name.

11. The accounts of every society are subject to audit in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force in British India regarding the registration of companies shall be audited in accordance with that law.

Section 12. Audit of societies not registered under the Indian Companies Act.

Verification of auditor's report.

12. Every auditor resulting under the Act the accounts of a society shall make a report which shall state—

(a) whether or not he has obtained all the information and explanations he has required; and

(b) whether, in his opinion, the balance sheet referred to in the report is drawn up in conformity with the law; and

(c) whether such balance sheet exhibits a true and correct view of the state of the society's affairs according to the best of his information and the explanations given to him and as shown by the books of the society;

(d) whether or not he has personally verified the whole of the investments with the securities and other vouchers and is satisfied as to their correctness;

(e) any other matters that he considers should be brought to the notice of the members or policy-holders of the society.

13. The accounts shall consist of the revenue account, profit and loss account and balance sheet as prescribed in forms VI, VIII and IX. A society may, if it so desires, submit a separate revenue account (precisely similar to form VI) for any class of business entered on by it, but the transactions in respect of a class of business not prescribed under the Act shall not be shown in a revenue account showing the transactions in respect of any business which is so prescribed. The accounts shall be verified and the certificate of verification shall be signed by all the directors of the society and by the manager and one of the other responsible officers. If any of them omit to sign the return shall be null and void. Statements in the following forms VII and X to XIII shall also be prepared each year and signed by the chairman or managing director (if any) as well as by the manager or one of the other responsible officers of the society:—

Form of account.

Form VII—giving particulars of expenditures which has not been charged on such.

Form VIII—giving particulars of the relationship existing between the lives assured and those effecting policies.

Form IX—giving particulars of the number of policies effected at different ages.

Form X—showing the magnitude of the society's policy contracts.

Form XI—giving particulars of the new business each year.

Form XII—showing for each year the additions to and deductions from the number of policies and the sums assured thereunder.

Form XIII—giving particulars for each year since the formation of the society of the number of policies that have gone off the books for various reasons.

Form XIV—showing the claims under existing society business arranged according to the duration of the policies.

Form XV—giving examples of the sums paid in past years under existing society business.

The Registrar may, on the application, and with the consent of a society, alter these forms as regards that society for the purpose of adapting them to the circumstances of that society.

14. The accounts and statements referred to in rule 13 signed by the chairman or managing director (if any) as well as the manager and one of the other responsible officers of the society shall be delivered to the Registrar.

15. The revenue account and balance sheet together with the auditor's report shall be laid before an annual general meeting within six months of the expiration of each financial year of the society, and if the general meeting before which the accounts are laid does not adopt them, a statement of the fact and of the reasons therefor shall be annexed to the balance sheet and to all subsequent.

Revenue account and balance sheet to be placed before a general meeting.

Auditors' qualifications.

16. The following persons shall be eligible to be auditors and to act as such in respect of the accounts of any society, viz.—

(1) Members of the following six bodies, namely—

22. In the event of the actuary stating that the financial condition of the society is such, in his opinion, that no payment should be made, either of bonus to policyholders or of dividend to members, he shall state whether or not he finds the society to be solvent. If he finds it to be insolvent—

(a) he shall state whether he considers that the society could be made solvent by repaying existing amounts by the transfer of his subordinated capital (whether paid or unpaid) to make good the deficiency in the funds. If so, he shall state what in his opinion is the amount so required and whether or not any alterations would require to be made in the rates of premium for future contracts; . . .

(9) If he considers that the society cannot be made solvent as regards existing contracts, he shall state what proportion of the sum assumed the society would, in his opinion, be liable to meet under such contracts, if all the provisions thereunder were reduced proportionately with the sum assumed and all subscribed capital were fully paid up and transferred to such funds.

23. The Registrar before cancelling the registry of a society under section 18 may—

Section 18.—Power of Registrar to postpone order under section 18.

(a) suspend further proceedings for such time as he thinks fit, to enable the unpaid subscribed capital, or a sufficient part thereof, to be called up for the purpose of making good deficiencies in the funds;

(b) consent to the society retaining the amount of its contracts upon such terms and subject to such conditions as he thinks just as a means towards winding up.

24. The Registrar shall not appoint a liquidator under section 19 in the case of a society subject to the law for the time being in force in British India relating to registration of companies.

Section 19.—Liquidator

25. Any liquidator appointed by the Registrar may be removed by him if it is proved to his satisfaction that the duties entrusted to such liquidator have not been faithfully discharged.

Liquidator. Removal of — by Registrar.

Any vacancy so caused shall be filled by the Registrar.

Liquidator's remuneration.

Liquidation procedure, section 24 (1) (c).

26. There shall be paid to the liquidator such salary or remuneration by way of percentage or otherwise as the Registrar may direct.

27. The procedure to be followed by a liquidator appointed by the Registrar shall be as under—

(a) He shall immediately take into custody or under his control all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled and the documents and records belonging to the society.

(b) He shall within one month from the date of his assuming charge hold a meeting of the creditors of the society of which not less than seven days' notice shall be sent by post to all persons who appear to him to be creditors, specifying the time and place of the meeting. He shall also advertise notice of the meeting once in the local official gazette and once at least in some newspaper (if any) circulating in the district where the registered office or principal place of business of the society was situate.

He shall at the meeting explain to the creditors the financial condition of the society and ascertain from each creditor how much is due to him from the society.

(c) He may at any time summon a general meeting of the creditors or contributories for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and he shall summon such meetings at such times as the creditors or contributories by resolution may direct or whenever requested in writing to do so by one-tenth in value of the creditors or contributories.

(d) He shall in the administration of the assets of the society and in the distribution thereof among its creditors have regard to any directions that may be given by creditors or contributories at any general meeting or by the Registrar.

(e) He may with the sanction of the Registrar employ such legal assistance as may be necessary in the institution or defence of any legal proceedings and such establishments as may be required.

(f) He shall keep proper books in which shall be entered the proceedings at meetings and such other matters as the Registrar may prescribe.

Any creditor or contributory may, subject to the control of the Registrar, personally or by his agent inspect any such books.

(g) He shall submit to the Registrar a report of the progress of liquidation at such intervals as the Registrar may direct.

28. When a liquidator has been appointed in terms of section 19 of the Act he may, if he thinks fit, reduce the amount of such of the contracts of the society upon such terms and subject to such conditions as he may think just, as a means towards winding up. If the contracts are not to be reduced in amount as here provided, the liquidator shall ascertain the value of the liability of the society to such persons appearing by the books of the society to be entitled to or interested in policies granted by such society. He shall give written notice to each person of the value so ascertained.

Liquidator may reduce contracts.

(1) The balance sheet must state how the value of the mortgaged property has been ascertained, and a certificate must be appended, signed by the loan officer or agent, that the value stated in the sheet is that of the property on the date of the valuation, and is the appropriate value of the mortgaged property, having been obtained from the loan officer.

(2) A certificate must be appended, signed by the loan officer or agent, that the value stated in the sheet is that of the property on the date of the valuation, and is the appropriate value of the mortgaged property, having been obtained from the loan officer.

(3) The balance sheet must be given in full, including, "sundry other amounts," which must be given in detail, and must be given in full, including, "sundry other amounts," which must be given in detail, and must be given in full, including, "sundry other amounts," which must be given in detail.

(4) Particulars must be given of all amounts or other amounts due or paid to any shareholder or member of the society, or to any other person, in the year ending 19 for the month of January.

(5) Particulars must be given of the balance of the above-mentioned loans and agency balances and outstanding promissory notes, interest, dividends and profits, and must be given in detail.

In the Revenue Account should be entered all the financial transactions of the society by way of income and expenditure during the year, whether such transactions have been completed by the actual receipt or payment of cash, or not, ascertaining at the end of the year.

On the Income side of the account should appear the particulars for each different class of business, all income from, fees and other sums due to the society during the year (whether received or not) under the several items provided in the form—

(a) Investments made or realized should not be entered in this account, but only the gain or loss made on their realisation, which should appear as income, if gain, and as expenditure, if loss.

(b) No deposits to, or withdrawals from, Bank are to be brought into this account.

On the Expenditure side should appear all expenses incurred during the year (whether paid or outstanding) under the several items provided in the form. But debts, losses, or Agency balances should be shown as expenditure.

No item can be included in the funds at the end of the year which was not included in the funds at the beginning of the year, unless it is a loan or a sum of income of the year. Similarly no distribution can be made in any of the funds in any year without appearing as an item of expenditure in the Revenue Account for that year.

The amount of such difference shall at the beginning of the year should be the amount which was stated in the Revenue Account of the society's last return as the amount of those funds at the end of the year.

If the balance of any account shown in the previous return be found incorrect, the corrected balance shall be brought forward in the next return, and an explanation of the difference given on the form itself.

On the Liabilities (or left-hand) side of the Balance Sheet there should be brought from the Revenue Account the amounts of two Funds at the end of the year, as indicated on the form; and the particulars stated of any debts incurred on behalf of the society, over (if any) due by the society, and any other liabilities incurred by it which may be outstanding at the end of the year.

On the Assets (or right-hand) side should be shown the society's investments together with the cash in hand and any other assets of the society. Amongst such other assets will be, for instance—

- branch and agency balances,
- outstanding premiums;
- outstanding interest;
- interest earned but not payable;
- cheques paid into bank and in course of realisation.

The amounts of these items shown in the balance sheet will, in the main, be received during the next financial year, but they must not again be included amongst the premiums, interest or cash in the Revenue Account, as they have already been included in the amount shown in that year's Revenue Account as "Amount of Funds at the beginning of the year."

None of these outstanding items which have been taken credit for as at next may never be paid at all. The amount of these outstanding will have to be written off through the Revenue Account and the funds will be increased accordingly.

Verified with the books, accounts and vouchers and found correct.

MADRAS VETERINARY COLLEGE.

Notice is hereby given that selection of candidates for admission into the Madras Veterinary College will be made in February 1917.

3. Candidates are eligible for admission without distinction of caste or nationality. They must not be under 18 years of age at the commencement of the term for which admission to the college is desired. In ordinary circumstances no person over 35 years of age will be admitted as a first student. Students are admitted to the college by selection, which will be made by the Principal. Applications for admission should be made in writing in the prescribed form given below, and they should be submitted so as to reach the Principal not later than the 31st December next.

4. In the event of a candidate being selected, he will be served with a special notice informing him of the particular day and hour when, and the place at which, he should present himself for personal selection. Candidates when admitted will be considered to be on probation for the first two months of the course and may be removed if found to be unsatisfactory.

5. The tuition shall be free to all students who execute an agreement binding themselves to serve Government for five years, if required, after completing their course in the college satisfactorily. All others will be required to pay tuition fees in advance at each term at the rate of Rs. 240 per annum. A fee of Rs. 5 is also payable by each student, whether free or paying, to meet the cost of sports.

6. Government annually allot 60 scholarships in each class annually, two of the monthly value of Rs. 20 each which will be reserved for graduates of a University, preferably those who have taken a Science degree, and the remaining 58 of the monthly value of Rs. 15 each, but they reserve the right to decrease the number or alter their value if necessary. Scholarships in the first year will be awarded by the Principal on the results of the first three monthly examinations. Scholarships obtainable in the second and third years are similarly allotted on the results of the monthly and annual examinations. A student eligible in the enjoyment of a scholarship from a local body or a private person is not eligible for a Government scholarship. All scholarships are conditional on the good behaviour of the holders. Students who are in the enjoyment of the Government scholarships are required to refund the amount which they have received on discontinue and also to pay tuition fees at the rate of Rs. 240 per annum, if they leave the college without sanction or are expelled for misconduct.

7. Candidates of the college are eligible for appointment to the following posts in the Theoretical and Schoolcraft service of the Madras Veterinary Department in the Madras Veterinary:—

Deputy Superintendent of	Rs. 300—55—000
Lecturers and Assistant Principal of the College on pay varying from	Rs. 300—55—000
Veterinary Inspector (first grade) on	Rs. 180—4—100
Do. (second)	Rs. 150—3—100
Veterinary Assistant (first)	Rs. 150—3—100
Do. (second)	Rs. 150—3—100
Do. (third)	Rs. 150—3—100
Do. (fourth)	Rs. 150—3—100

Note.—The interest on the above is not included in the amount of annual payment.

Veterinary Inspectors and Assistants posted to the college as lecturers will be paid a supplementary local allowance of Rs. 50 each per annum.

Veterinary Assistants when holding independent charge of hospitals and dispensaries whether maintained by Government or by local boards and municipalities will be paid a local allowance of Rs. 10 per annum each. While so employed they will also be provided with free quarters or granted 100 Rs. interest on advances not exceeding Rs. 5 per annum.

Interacting Veterinary Assistants are paid a local allowance of Rs. 25 per annum each. All the above posts are procurable. Veterinary graduates here, in addition, have prospects of employment as Municipal Cattle Inspectors and as Assistants, in charge of veterinary dispensaries established by local bodies, private proprietors and Native States. It will be the duty of the Principal to render all reasonable assistance to passed students in securing suitable employment.

OFFICIAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

GENERAL HOSPITAL, MAITLAND.

TENDERS FOR SUPPLY OF ARTICLES OF DIET AND HOSPITAL SUPPLIES.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders for supplies will be received up to 10 o'clock (according) on Monday the 26th September 1916, by the Medical Officer, General Hospital, for the supply of the following articles:

1. Diet, suitable and suitable, etc., suitable (quantity of articles which must be supplied in bulk within seven days after completion of tender or in quantities as required within the time specified. Tenders must be made on bill as soon after receipt as possible.

2. The articles required are detailed in the attached schedule annexed, and information as to quantities, etc., may be had on personal application at the Hospital.

3. A separate tender must be sent in for each article.

4. Tenders will be opened by the Medical Officer at the General Hospital at the appointed time on the presence of those interested who may choose to attend.

5. Tenders to be accompanied by the amount specified in paragraph 1, and on the covers the words "Tenders for Hospital supplies" written. Each tender must contain not only the price, but the total value of each item of supply entered on a separate column, the items in which must be retailed up showing the supply of each item.

6. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of Government promissory notes or Bank of New South Wales notes of the amount of each article. When several articles are tendered for, and such receipt for the total amount of amount money will be received. In default of such deposit the tender will be rejected, and any tender so received after the time fixed for the opening of tenders. As such will be deemed. This deposit will be returned to unsuccessful tenders immediately and to the others as soon as they have made their supplies.

7. No person making a tender shall be allowed to withdraw his tender for the space of forty days from the date thereof, and in the event of his so doing, his deposit shall be forfeited to Government.

8. No abstract of such will be made to the tenderer.

9. Bills on promissory notes issued by the Deputy Assistant-Comptroller for payments at the Madras Bank when delivery of the articles.

10. The Senior Medical Officer reserves to himself the right to decline or accept the tender for any one or more of the articles tendered for by the successful tenderer without assigning any reason for so doing.

11. The Senior Medical Officer also reserves to himself the right of rejecting tenders without assigning any reason for so doing.

12. Government promissory notes lodged as earnest-money shall not be ordered over to the tenderer until 10 days after the date of the opening of the deposits. Government will appropriate or cancel the notes as per G.O. No. 1110, dated 2nd March 1903, authority in that effect being daily referred to the tenderer in other documents executed by the department.

13. With reference to the regulations mentioned in the preceding paragraph No. 12, the tenderer should attach a certificate to his tender to the following effect:—

"I, the tenderer, agree to pay the earnest money of the Government promissory notes as above receipted, ordered to Government in case of my failure to undertake the contract."

14. No article shall be supplied to the hospital except on authority signed by the Senior Medical Officer or by some responsible person authorized by him in writing to do so.

15. Printed forms of tenders can be had on application at the General Hospital, Madras.

16. Samples are not sent out unless called for. When called for they must be sent in within two days. If approved and tender accepted, the samples received will be counted as part of the supply. If rejected, the sample fee will be paid for at the tender rates. Tenders are distinctly to understand that, if the order is accepted, the balance of the article as ordered required must be in every way equal to the approved sample. The signature of the Senior Medical Officer to be final on this point.

METEOROLOGICAL RESULTS

FROM THE MADRAS OBSERVATORY ENGINEER.

[illegible]

The Standard Barometer and Thermometer are read at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., 4 p.m., and 8 p.m., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The centre of the Barometer is twenty-one feet above the level of the sea, and the mirror of the Rain Gauge is five feet from the ground. The wind, rain and general weather registered are for the current Civil Day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of fish collected since January 31 is 745 inches, the average size for the same period being 13.55 inches.
